With following facts. can you afford to support Labour? We hope not.

How labour screwed up during 2002-2006

- Council Tax increased by £424 or 48% over four years on average at the rate of 10% +
- Borough had the dirtiest streets in London and Just 47% of Southall streets were rated as clean in 2006.
- Just £560,000 spent on Southall's roads over four years.
- Split BLACK waste bags encouraged rats and vermin
- Southall left as the forgotten part of the Borough.
- Labour councillors opposed any new car parking spaces for visitors , Toilets on the Broadway , new Library and health care centre in Jubilee Garden, Southall
- Audit Commission rated Ealing Council as 'weak' in 2004
- Social Services rated Ealing Council as worst in London in 2004.
- No Alley gating programme to combat drug dealing/antisocial behaviour.
- Labour in addition to increase council Tax by 48% introduced four yellow Boxes to make more money.
- Labour issued 383,667 parking tickets in the last year in Power.

How Southall benefitted from the Conservatives

- Council Tax increases kept below inflation over three years plus residents are being given a rebate of £50 this year.
- Southall has consistently over 90% of streets cleaned to 'grade A' standard.
- Over £2.4M spent on Southall's roads and footways in three years.
- 15,000 free wheelie bins provided to those who wanted them thus virtually eradicating rat problem
- Conservatives invested £1.8M on Southall Town centre improvements and £1.5m to establish new library and health centre in Jubilee Garden, Southall
