With following facts, can you afford to support Labour? We hope not.

Labour's performance

- Cllr. Sharma an underperforming MP according to www.theyworkforyou.com, attended only one council meeting per six months, just to avoid disqualification and received £3,000 per meeting for doing so.
- As Labour MP, Mr. Sharma supported and voted for detention without charge for up to 42 days.
- Mr. Sharma, while in India, advocated war with Pakistan. (See www.ajitjalandhar.com of 14th December 2008.
- From 2002 to 2006, Labour increased council tax by 48.6%, had the dirtiest streets and a ZERO rating for Social Services.
- Under Labour the Stroke Unit is marked for closure, putting future of Ealing Hospital at risk. Mr. Sharma did not make any representation to Healthcare for London. The Labour Representative on Ealing PCT voted to close Stroke Unit at Ealing Hospital.

Conservatives' performance

- Cllr. Gurcharan Singh, the Conservative Parliamentary candidate opposed 42 days detention without charge.
- Cllr. Singh, as Mayor of Ealing visited Pakistan on number of occasions to foster better relationship among all communities.
- Tories have frozen Council Tax for 2009/10 and have decided to refund £50 to each council taxpayer
- Tories are on target to spend £16m to resurface roads and renewal of pavements
- We will freeze council Tax for two years , abolish stamp Duty for first time buyers on houses costing up to £250,000, cut gas and electricity bill by £100 for up to 4million families and increase inheritance Tax threshold to £1m.
- Cllr. Singh submitted a petition signed by 1862 persons to save stroke Unit at Ealing Hospital.
